Family of the Week– Jonathan & Althea

Dear CMF Family,

Our New Year is on a strong roll! We are again in the daily grind of the school routine! Isaiah's pain is stronger for the last week or two than it's been for a while. It's hard for him to concentrate on anything very well. Even fun things. Pray for us! We are so proud of how he is learning to live well with the pain, but we long to see it pass.

Trace is still in the throes of unbelief. He is so confused, so despairing, so addicted to multiple things. Yet, his mind twists and turns away from what he sees as he works on different passages with Jonathan. He is determined to find evidence that the Gospel is not true. He and Jonathan spend hours each week discussing faith and Truth. And in spite of his faith crisis and his despair, he keeps coming back to the studio and our table...

Our current visas run out this month, and we will need to apply for new ones. The process always makes us a little nervous, but we trust that any outcome, whether acceptance or denial, will be the right thing in our lives!

Scripture videos are slowly being uploaded to the web. A friend has joined our team to help us create and manage a website to make the material more readily available to the Verdiya people. Althea, for the Bylers
