Family of the Week – Jonathan & Althea

Dear CMF family,

We’re almost ready to start on our way toward you all! This visit will be primarily devoted to family, but we hope to see at least most of you once or twice at church.

Detail preparation for leaving house and vehicles for the summer is never fun, but we are slogging our way through. We are thankful for so many friends here in Tarr who help us when we need to travel!

Some friends have connected us with a national believing couple from the far south of the country who have agreed to come visit Tarr for a week in August. We are very, very excited about this visit! We hope to introduce these people to our work here, share our vision for passing the main responsibility for the project on to the national church, and ask them how they would advise us to move forward. We are praying that God’s plan for next steps in further work in the Verdiya will be made clear to all of us.

While we fly on Monday, our friends here will be enjoying tripe (stomach) and liver from the sheep they butcher for the biggest holiday of the year. After that they will begin on the more pleasant meals (in my opinion!) of stews and kebabs. As always, our prayer is that they will come to know the Lamb whom God provided to die once-for-all to make His children clean!
Althea, for the Bylers
