Missionary Spotlight – Allen & Carolyn Roth

--Thank God with us for celebrating 50 years of marriage this past week, for the privilege of traveling with a group to historic Anabaptist sites in Switzerland, France, and Germany, and for our church's gracious event in commemoration of the big 50. They were so gracious and generous. (For those who don't know, Carolyn was a VAWV girl, a true southern belle!) And our daughter, Lanita, made a surprise visit from TX to accompany us...so special!

--Now we get to focus on reconnecting and serving in our community; pray for opportunities and for strength in these hot summer months.

--Each month we visit and share with the Spanish group in Queens; pray for fluency in preaching and for the ability to encourage and build up.

--Pray that my bi-weekly Bible discussions via WhatsApp can soon resume with Tariq in Bangladesh; our discussions of the Gospel of John were paused while he went on pilgrimage to Mecca this month.

--Pray for our ongoing language learning (French for me; Bangla for both of us); it is slow going at 73 and 74!

--July 6-7 I will share in PA with All Nations Bible Translations on church planting topics; pray for anointing as I prepare and share.

Allen

COMMUNITY / SERVICE OPPORTUNITIES
