Missionary Spotlight – Henry Blank

DNI President

Deb, Vanessa, and I had a really good trip to Cambodia and Mongolia. It was so good to spend time with Dewey and Stacey and the boys again. Vanessa really enjoys spending time with Dewey and Stacey's boys, and they are always delighted when she comes to visit. Vanessa does a really good job of investing in the DNI children when we travel. One of Stan Miller's boys in Mongolia told Vanessa that she is the best babysitter ever!

Deb and I celebrated our 28th wedding anniversary while we were in Cambodia, so we decided to take a few days in Siem Reap, Cambodia doing the tourist thing and touring Angkor Wat and some of the other ancient temples there. Angkor Wat is quite impressive and is considered to be the 8th wonder of the world. Our time in Mongolia with the team was also very enjoyable. Mongolians were celebrating their big summer festival called Naadam while we were there, so we were able to experience some interesting aspects of traditional Mongolian culture.

We have a week and one day to get over jet lag and then pack up and head to Indiana for board meetings, Convention, and DNI workers retreat. We would appreciate your prayers for extra emotional and physical energy for the meeting marathon! Pray for meaningful and mutually encouraging interactions. Pray for wisdom for the DNI board as they process some important decisions.

Blessings,
Henry Blank
