Family of the Week – Jonathan & Althea

Dear CMF family,

It's been a very busy month since we arrived back in Tarr, but we are thankful that, even with everything else going on, the children are all settled back into school and moving steadily forward.

As I write, we are wrapping up the visit our national brothers from the south have paid us. Our time together has been rich beyond expectations. We are exhausted, yes, but deeply thankful for their presence with us this week. It's been a joyful, and humbling, experience as we have introduced our visitors to our local friends and then listened as they have clearly explained in a shared language what we can never hope to accomplish so quickly and easily. Yet we also know that our trying to explain in action and in word (as outsiders) all these years is also what has begun to ripen our friends to listen to someone from their own background.

Moving forward, we pray that the seeds sown this week will grow and that the national church will catch a vision for sending their own workers into the Tarr harvest -- which we don't yet see, but which we trust will come eventually. We also pray for wisdom to work out the details of how our new friends may be able to help us with the Verdiya translation work over the coming months. And last of all, please pray for us as we go through the slump which usually follows a busy and exciting week.

Our God is so, so GOOD! Hallelujah!
Althea, for the Bylers
