Jam sessions, Fabulous Food, Comfort Knotting for flood victims, 10 o’clock meats, Hiking, Meaningful Conversations, Testimonies of Gratitude.” Our appreciation and thanks to those who planned (Suetta & Anna), those who prepared and shared, all who participated, and ultimately God Himself Who enabled and generously blessed! May happy memories and gratitude continue!

Missionary Spotlight – Micah & Karissa Krabill

Our SEAMS Family in NYC

Greetings from South Brooklyn! With the weather turning considerably cooler and the daylight hours being reduced, we are so grateful that we had the summer here to get to know our community in the evenings, etc. In the past few weeks we’ve had fewer interactions because of that. However, the Lord is still allowing us to meet more locals here and there and for that we are grateful! Lately one of our new J friends has been sharing with me about the extreme antisemitism he’s facing at the local college. Will you join us in prayer for his salvation and physical safety? Another request is that we meet a local, young J family with children the same age as our boys with whom we could become friends and do things together as families.

—Micah for the Krabill’s

2024-25 CMF Budget was approved in the Oct. 6 business meeting. Based on annual donations of $200,000, regular offering donations will be distributed as follows: BMA/EBI, 4%; Building Fund, 16%; General Fund, 50%; Missions Fund, 30%. Pastoral support will be given in the Fifth Sunday offerings; Alms Fund is supported by the special offerings at communion. [*The General Fund is used to provide the many ongoing needs of maintaining our facility, utilities, supplies and SS curriculum, insurance, guest speakers, etc.]

Your regular giving of tithes and offerings advances His Church and her mission!

The IGo newsletter is available under the mailboxes.

- ❖ CMF members are encouraged to support the West Rockingham Food Pantry as a ministry to our neighbors with its distribution on the third Thursday each month. Donations may be sent to WRFPP, 4222 Mt. Clinton Pike, Rockingham, VA 22802.
