Family of the Week – Jonathan & Althea

Dear CMF family,

We are thrilled to report rain. Lots and lots of rain. Our reservoir is now moving in the right direction, although it will take many more such weeks as we’ve recently had to return it to full. Still, we rejoice in every inch that the water level rises. And we continue to pray that God will use all things to draw people to Himself, both the drought, and the realization of rains.

Working through Ramadan has not been easy. Jonathan will be very glad to have it behind us once again and be able to return to a more normal work schedule.

The next week brings visitors! Some of them will be some of you! A group of national Sisters will also be here for a few days at the same time as our American guests. I hope these sisters can visit and counsel some of my friends here. Planning the details of it all is not possible, so I’m trying to leave the uncertainties in the Father’s hands. Pray that the connections made will be powerful and fruitful on many levels.

We’re sailing through the last quarter of the school year! It feels good to be in a good place to take time off for our visitors. We’re also planning the next school year... already. How time flies!

Love,
Althea, for the Bylers
