Missionary Spotlight – Dewey & Stacey Yoder

Greetings from warm Cambodia! We hope that each of you are doing well and resting in God's abundant mercy and grace. The past few months for us have been full of visitors, a WATER team from SMBI, and a wonderful DNI field visit from Joe Peachy and Tom & Tabitha Gearin. We enjoy having visitors and are looking forward to having Raleigh and Pat Rhodes come in a couple weeks for 3 months. They plan to help encourage and train our local team during their stay. This plays an important role in the growth and development of the church and organization. Don't underestimate the value that the "older" generation has when it comes to missions overseas!

The end of July, Stacey and I escorted Levy and Phalla and their family to IGO in Thailand to attend the 3-week Asian Bible School. We returned after being away from our children for 3 nights to find them alive and healthy thanks to our amazing Khmer house helper! She has been a tremendous blessing to us as a family! Stacey continues to homeschool the boys. Recently she has found an organization that does Zoom calls with 3 of our 4 boys to provide more specialized help with reading and speech. I have been busy with the church, Redeeming Rain, and Kingdom Svay. I'm currently spending my mornings doing things related to Redeeming Rain and the church and my afternoons doing things related to Kingdom Svay. At Kingdom Svay we are waiting to receive final approval for our packaging details before we order the packages. We hope to start selling them on our website by mid October!

Pray for:

- Levy and Phalla, flying from Thailand Friday evening, their first time flying alone.
 - Wisdom as we raise our boys and as Stacey homeschools them.
 - God to raise up local leaders for our church.
 - Funding for Redeeming Rain
- Dewey & Stacey
