Missionary Spotlight – Dan & Ann Tice

Life in The Center is back to being quite busy. We see up to 80 or more people on the mornings that we are there. The other activities such as English classes, Spanish classes, and homework assistance for immigrant children have begun again this week.

Sunday Sept 28 is the day for an anniversary celebration with the West African group in Camphermosto. I think it has been 14 years since this group began worshipping together. We are grateful for healing in pastor Prince Moses body after some bleeding in his brain after a bout of high blood pressure in August. Pray for continued healing.

The Arab group continues to meet faithfully. M, the leader, is currently in Spain for some short term work.

This fall it seems we will be having more guests than we like to receive. Pray for wisdom on how to remain focused on those we serve without neglecting our visitors.

Thank you for your faithful prayers and supportive communications!

Dan & Ann Tice
