Missionary Spotlight – Dewey & Stacey Yoder

Hello dear Calvary family, we appreciate your love and support and interest in our lives so much. We have been doing well, Stacey currently has a swollen lymph node that she is dealing with, other than that, everyone else is healthy, praise God!

The homeschool year is going well so far. We have zoom calls with a speech specialist and also spelling/dyslexia specialist. We are so thankful for the specialist help and working with us. We also want to thank you all for helping cover the expenses of the new curriculum for them. Zeke and Zay are enjoying being part of a local Christian school sports program. Currently they are doing basketball and making a few new friends through that.

We recently started a WhatsApp group chat to update our supporters on our ministry and lives here. You guys are welcome to join that. We would love to have you join! We sent the link to the Calvary Church ladies chat and the men's chat also. So you can join there.

You can pray for Dewey and finances for Redeeming Rain Organization. He has been really stressed out about that and waking up at night, thinking and praying about it. If the Lord wants RRO to continue as normal, He will provide the funding necessary. If not, we are open to His plans!

Dewey has been staying busy with his leadership roles. We're so grateful for the Khmer people we work with.

**Please pray for some of our dorm student girls. Some of them have not been getting along very well. Pray for them to act and treat each other with love. Pray for wisdom for us and also for the dorm leader couple.

We are also thankful to have Pat and Raleigh Rhodes here. They have been great mentors for our team. We are working through many important aspects of a church with them. They have been doing some teaching to our leadership team, dorm students, and church.

We love and appreciate you all and pray that you are blessed.

Dewey & Stacey
