Missionary Spotlight

Henry & Deb Blank, President of DNI in NYC

Vanessa is at EBI for 3rd and 4th terms and is making new friends and enjoying the classes. The past several months have brought some additional challenges and responsibility for me (Henry). We are so grateful for the grace and peace the Lord has given us through it all. I am chairing an ad hoc liaison committee which is tasked with helping the Mexico Orphanage committee and leadership address the current challenges and chart a path forward. Things remain uncertain, but there is a reasonable expectation that the children may return, so we are moving forward in anticipation of that happening. Deb is working with the Restore team in developing a training track for the caregivers. My father who is 82 seems to be experiencing some dementia. Our family is working together on a plan for his care. We would appreciate prayer for wisdom, grace, and peace that passes understanding through these challenging times.

Thanks so much for praying!
Henry Blank
